

As a nationally certified interpreter I have seen the quality and availability of VRS services deteriorate since the FCC funding cut. Another funding cut would worsen the access of VRS services further. Please keep the current reimbursement rate for VRS as is.